STRANGLED HER WITH A ROPE

Positive identification of Duncan O. Mann, son of Orville O. Mann, wealthy resident of Oak Park, Chicago, as the purchaser of the rope which bound Mrs. Frances Thompson in her death struggles, the discovery of the key in his pocket which is said to fit the door to the death chamber in the house at 1242 Michigan avenue, and the recovery of a watch from Mann's pocket, alleged to belong to the murdered woman, form important developments in the Thompson murder mystery.

The finding of the key on a ring in the accused man's pocket which was identified by Mrs. Alice Hamilton, housekeeper at the Michigan avenue rooming house, as one of the bed chamber in which was found the nude body of the Thompson woman, mutilated and tied with a heavy clothesline, on the afternoon of July 2, was one of the sensational developments. Mrs. Hamilton was positive in her statements.

Walter A. Buckner, a clerk who sold the rope that was found about the murdered woman's throat and body, identified Mann as the person who had purchased the strangler's cord. He declared that he could not be mistaken.

A lady's watch with the monogram letters "D. P." on the back of it, is also another important clue. The police declare it belonged to the murdered woman. The letters on the watch correspond with the letters found on the handkerchief stuffed in the murdered woman's throat.

The case was continued to October 19.

Do not let anyone tell you that something is just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills because there isn't anything just as good. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOOLED TWO HUSBANDS.

Instances of a man maintaining two wives in different parts of New York, are not rare, but it is not often that a woman slides into the limelight as the possessor of two husbands with whom she lived every day in the year.

Mrs. Catherine Strobel was such a versatile helpmeet, according to undisputed evidence furnished yesterday before Justice Aspinwall in the Brooklyn Supreme Court, where Philip Strobel was awarded a decree of divorce from her.

Judge Aspinwall was satisfied by the evidence that Catherine lived with Strobel as his wife at 247 Stanhope street, and with one Jacob Valuse as his wife at Atlantic and Grant avenues, Richmond Hill. She was aided in her dual household accomplishments by the fact that Strobel, whom she married in 1899, is an engineer and works at night. Valuse is a clerk and works in the daytime.

And she managed to reign in two households in 24 hours without serious difficulties, except on Sundays and on the rare occasions when her husband took a night off. Valuse did not work Sundays, but Strobel worked Sunday nights.

The term of Strobel's employment forced him to leave his home at 6 o'clock in the evening. Before departing he would eat what corresponds to a day worker's breakfast. As soon as he was out of sight, Mrs. Strobel would put on her wraps, close up the house and hasten to Richmond Hill, where she would assume her position as Mrs. Valuse.

The clerking Valuse wound up his labor at 6 o'clock in the evening. By the time he got out to Richmond Hill, his apparent wife would have dinner on the table for him. She would spend the night at Valuse's home and get up at 5:30 in the morning and prepare his breakfast.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Lame Back.

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the small of the back, and is quickly cured by applying Chamberlain's Liniment two or three times a day and massaging the parts at each application. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

MARRIED AT 102.

Mrs. Charlotte Decker is dead at Seneca Falls, N. Y. She would have been 110 years old on November 27. Her father, Godfrey Reels, was a volunteer in the Colonial army and served until the colonies were free. Mrs. Decker could remember her father telling of the relations of the soldiers at Valley Forge. She remembered the year 1818, when no grain could be raised and it was sold for $5 a bushel.

Mrs. Decker was married to her first husband, Thomas Preston, in 1818. Following his death she married Albert Brainerd. He died ten years ago, and in June, 1900, Mrs. Brainerd was married to Samuel Decker. He was then 61 and Mrs. Decker 102. She had out one child, which died in infancy.

Cascarets, the well known remedy for babies and children, will quiet the little one in a short time. The ingredients are printed on the bottle. Contains no opiates. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

SAYS SHE WAS SOLD FOR $100.

That she was sold for $100 and forced by her father to marry a man she didn't love, was the statement made yesterday by 17-year-old Julia Madello, of New Brunswick, N. J., who last Saturday, shot and killed Tony Madello, to whom she was married four months ago. The girl said she had no regret for her act. "I was ill and lying on the bed when he came in Saturday night," she said. "He asked why I wasn't ready and I told him I was not well enough to get up. Then he ordered me to get up and close a window. I said I could not, and he struck me. He bent and kicked me and then, taking out his knife, said he would kill me. I ran around him and got the revolver and when he made a move as if he would shoot me I killed him."

The position of Madello's body when found by the police indicated that he had been deliberately fired upon from the back while he sat at the supper table. A knife was found on the body.
